

Our Values

Our Mission Statement

We take the time because it's the little things that matter

'We believe in strong family values to deliver compassionate, heart centred and sincere care. Our Residents are at the heart of all that we do'

'Our Residents enjoy life to the full by creating new memories and gaining a sense of belonging and self-worth'

We treat Residents as individuals with choice, dignity and as a unique person. We achieve this with staff who have the skills and knowledge to make relationship-centred care real'

'We praise and recognise our staff for all the little things they do'

'We invest in our staff by facilitating their growth and development through continual support and encouragement'

'You will enjoy working with us as part of our staff family where individuals are respected, treated fairly and achievements are recognised'

'We take ownership and pride in the presentation of our homes'
